

George Herbert Walker School of Business & Technology

Departments

- Business, Elizabeth Risik, chair
- Management, Eric Rhiney, chair
- Computer and Information Sciences, James Curtis, chair

Simone Cummings, dean

George Herbert Walker School of Business & Technology
website (external to catalog)

Please refer to the Accreditations section of this catalog for specialized accreditations that may apply to programs in the George Herbert Walker School of Business & Technology.

Mission

To prepare students for career success in an increasingly globally integrated business and technological economy utilizing a student-centered, real-world approach.

Vision

To be a leading institution of business and technology education by providing students with the academic and professional preparation needed to achieve upward career mobility.

Values

Respect - A culture of respect facilitates highly positive interactions between and among students, staff, faculty and other stakeholders.

Knowledge - Knowledge allows us all, regardless of the role we

.