

Criminal Justice (MS)

This program is offered by the College of Humanities and Social Sciences. It is available online and at select U.S. campuses, but it is not available at the St. Louis main campus. However, there are select courses available at the St. Louis Main Campus. Please see the Campus Locations and Offerings section of this catalog for a list of campuses where this program is offered.

Criminal Justice (MS)

are drawn from the 3 credit hours reserved for the NTSC 6000 capstone and 3 elective credit hours in the program.

Electives

- 4 courses from the Criminal Justice Track in the MA in national security studies
- 4 courses from the International Regional and National Security Track in the MA in national security studies
- 1 additional course drawn from electives in either the MA in national security studies or the MS in criminal justice

Sequential Degree in Criminal Justice

A student who holds an MA, MS or an equivalent graduate degree from Webster University or another regionally accredited college or university (or its international equivalent) may earn a sequential MS in criminal justice from Webster University. Transfer credit may not be applied toward the sequential MS.

The student must take a minimum of 27 credit hours to earn the sequential MS in criminal justice. This includes the 12-hour degree core, as well as 15 elective hours. The elective hours may come from the Administration of Justice, Cybersecurity - Threat Detection, or International and Regional Security areas.
