ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT OF ANTHROPOLOGY & SOCIOLOGY

Programs in the Department of Anthropology & Sociology analyze social and cultural dimensions of human life in the contemporary world, foster critical thinking and analytic skills among students, and seek to help students draw links between their individual lives and broader processes of political, economic, and social/cultural change. By understanding how our lives are intertwined with larger social structures and processes, students will be better able to engage in the world around them.

The cultural anthropology counted. Incomplete grades are not accepted for transfer. Courses completed with a grade of D have severe transfer restrictions. Formal evaluation of transfer credit is conducted by the Office of the Registrar upon admission to the University.

MISSOURI REVERSE TRANSFER

Webster University is participating in the Missouri Reverse Transfer statewide initiative to help more Missourians earn associate degrees. Webster has partnered with each community college in the state to help ~~supply~~ Webster University credit back to the community college to earn the associate degree, if they transferred prior to earning the degree. Please speak with your transfer admissions counselor or academic advisor for more information.

GENERAL EDUCATION/GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP PROGRAM

Webster University requires all baccalaureate students to complete a general education program. The University has implemented a new set of general education requirements. The Global Citizenship Program (GCP) is a set of undergraduate degree requirements and a general education program developed by Webster University faculty to help prepare students to confront global problems and 21st century challenges.

Students who complete an Associate of Arts degree with 15 credit hours in the Social Sciences (15 credits) and 6-8 credit hours in the Global Citizenship Program (GCP) will receive credit for the first two general education requirements (GEN-101 and GEN-102).
